

Review Result

Manuscript ID

JDS-Aug-13-2021-146_R4

Title

Perceived Distribution Quality Awareness, Organizational Culture, TQM on Quality Output

Decision Made

Editor's Recommendation : Major Revision Major Revision

EIC's Decision : Major Revision

Editor's Recommendation : Minor Revision Minor Revision

EIC's Decision : Accept

Comment to Author

Reviewer1 :
TQM is thought to be a meaningful paper aimed at analyzing the effectiveness of quality output and overall quality control, organizational culture, recognition distribution of quality recognition through various applications and in-depth analysis of . However, it seems difficult to generalize the results because the subjects of the study are somewhat limited. It seems necessary to present something other than statistical validity for the results of empirical analyses by adding a valid basis for the sample's boundedness. Thank you for your efforts.

Reviewer2 :
Dear Author,

Reviewer1 :
- Please, Checklist of Manuscript and Submission (very important items): In particular, the following must be addressed and met the requirements and guidelines(See attached template). http://kodisajournals.org/bbs/board.php?bo\_table=notice&wr\_id=21
Or, http://kodisajournals.org/bbs/content.php?co\_id=authors
- If you want to publish to JDS, JDS must comply with the distribution science in its major area. Therefore, use uniformly in terms of "distribution science" in titles, keywords, and texts. Be sure to write in consistent terms. In addition, In your paper, if at least one word is not included in the title, keyword, and body content (TEXT), the terms such as distribution, logistics, retail, wholesale, online shopping, and store are not published.

Distribution-related words should be added to titles, keywords, introductions and conclusions

References should only be cited in journal articles or books. Please refrain from documents such as dissertations, Internet materials, and reports. Journal articles in the reference must have volume, issue, and page information.

References should be edited in APA style.

Distribution-related words should be added to titles, keywords, introductions and conclusions

References should only be cited in journal articles or books. Please refrain from documents such as dissertations, Internet materials, and reports. Journal articles in the reference must have volume, issue, and page information.

References should be edited in APA style.

Please modify it to meet the criteria for contribution, meet the apa criteria, and modify it exactly like the template.

Currently Attached File : 1 jds Manuscript\_s Template\_2021.docx

Close

Explanation Statement

Paper Titled : Perceived Distribution Quality Awareness, Organizational Culture, Total Quality Management on Quality Output

Manuscript ID : JDS-Aug-13-2021-146

Reviewer Comment	Author Comment and Revised
Reviewer 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- TQM is thought to be a meaningful paper aimed at analyzing the effectiveness of quality output and overall quality control, organizational culture, recognition distribution of quality recognition through various applications and in-depth analysis of. However, it seems difficult to generalize the results because the subjects of the study are somewhat limited. It seems necessary to present something other than statistical validity for the results of empirical analyses by adding a valid basis for the sample's boundedness. Thank you for your efforts.</li></ul>	Dear Editor Thanks for your valuable revision of our manuscript. Based on editor minor revision at references section about style and pages. We have revised our manuscript in this review 3rd. We delete the unsuitable reference, we adjustment a few of our references likes add information about pages. We use APA 6th edition too in this manuscript. Our revision we attach in this AKOMS

Explanation Statement

Paper Titled : Perceived Distribution Quality Awareness, Organizational Culture, Total Quality Management on Quality Output

Manuscript ID : JDS-Aug-13-2021-146

Reviewer Comment	Author Comment and Revised
Reviewer 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- TQM is thought to be a meaningful paper aimed at analyzing the effectiveness of quality output and overall quality control, organizational culture, recognition distribution of quality recognition through various applications and in-depth analysis of. However, it seems difficult to generalize the results because the subjects of the study are somewhat limited. It seems necessary to present something other than statistical validity for the results of empirical analyses by adding a valid basis for the sample's boundedness. Thank you for your efforts.</li> </ul>	Dear Editor Thanks for your valuable revision of our manuscript. Based on editor minor revision at references section about style and pages. We have revised our manuscript in this review 3rd. We delete the unsuitable reference, we adjustment a few of our references likes add information about pages. We use APA 6th edition too in this manuscript. Our revision we attach in this AKOMS
Reviewer 2: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Distribution-related words should be added to titles, keywords, introductions and conclusions</li> <li>- References should only be cited in journal articles or books. Please refrain from documents such as dissertations, Internet materials, and reports. Journal articles in the reference must have volume, issue, and page information.</li> <li>- References should be edited in APA style.</li> <li>- Edited parts must be marked in red and uploaded.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- We have added details information about “Distribution” in title, abstract and content of our manuscript.</li> <li>- For References we use APA 6th edition with Mendeley as tool for references manager system</li> <li>- In the first of our submission we consistent use APA 6th and cite just relevant with our manuscript</li> <li>- We have mark with red notice about all revised of references. Our revised is make letter volume and journal names with italic mode.</li> <li>- We have also completed some information such as number, volume and page. Mainly on references that come from text-books that did not exist before. In addition, we also deleted some of our references which we considered less relevant to our previous revisions</li> </ul>